PRESIDENT LANDS AT BREST

ALL QUIET AFTER NIGHT OF DISORDER

Montreal, Dec. 13.—Montreal is quiet today after a night of disorder growing out of the strike of 1500 city employees for higher pay. Efforts of Mayor Martin to effect a settlement last night failed. City officials were hopeful early today that the strikers would accept the offer of the Trade and Labor Council to act as mediators in the dispute. With all policemen and firemen joining the strikers the city was helpless for a time last night.

from the gangs and hoodlums who looted stores, invaded theatres, robbed citizens, and assaulted volunteer firemen and private detectives. Various civic organizations formed bodies to safeguard the city's interest and when a patrol of the streets was maintained the disorder died down.

Brest, Dec. 13.—President Wilson arrived in the harbor at Brest at one o'clock this afternoon on board the steamer George Washington amid deafening salvos of artillery fired on shore. The arrival was the culmination of an imposing naval spectacle which began as the presidential fleet rounded the outer cape crossing the entrance fort and moving majestically into the harbor where the George Washington anchored at the head of a long double column of American dreadnoughts and destroyers and the units of a French cruiser squadron. The presidential fleet was first sighted at eleven-thirty o'clock this morning fifteen miles off shore. It was more than an hour later that the fleet was sighted at the entrance of the harbor and a great cheer arose from the waiting crowd as the cloud of black smoke showed that the presidential party was near. The President landed at two o'clock.

Europe, including the dreadnought squadron which has been operating with the British main fleet during the war, will return to home waters this month, Secretary Daniels announced today. They may be expected to reach New York about December 23 and a naval review will take place there to celebrate the homecoming. Instructions have been cabled to Admiral Mayo, Commander in Chief of the Atlantic fleet and now at Brest, to bring back every naval vessel that can be spared. Many destroyers, converted yachts and other craft probably will come with the bigger ships.

Brest, Dec. 13.—The President delivered a brief address after landing at Brest, thanking Mayor Gondo and the people for the welcome given him. He then drove through the cheering crowds. The ovation continued until he reached the railroad station. President Wilson's progress from the pier to the train was amidst a vociferous welcome from the throngs in the streets. He left Brest for Paris at four o'clock this afternoon.

FINE MUSICAL AT NORTH CHAPEL

The musicale given last evening by Lieutenant Commander Thomas Mott Osborne, U. S. N., and Peter Kurtz at the North Church chapel proved one of the best given in this city for some time and the program received enthusiastic applause. Previous to the musical Mr. Osborne gave a short talk on Devastated France, as the proceeds of the musical was to be given for this cause.

The program given by Mr. Osborne, pianist, and Mr. Kurtz, violinist, was one which appealed to all music lovers and true appreciation was shown for each number. Enthusiasm was marked from the opening number, Gilbert & Sullivan's "Gondoliers" to the lively waltz of Strauss, the final number.

The program was as follows:
Grand Fantasia of Gilbert & Sullivan's "Gondoliers."
Beethoven Sonata for violin and piano.
Op. 24 in A major.
Allegro.
Adagio molto espressivo.
Scherzo Allegro molto.
Rondo Allegro ma non troppo.
Mendelssohn, Scotch Symphony Adagio.

FINAL REPORT ON THE WAR WORK DRIVE

The final report of the United War Work drive in this city has been made and it credits this city with $28,750.13, and with still a possibility of an increase from outside credits. The reports show that there was collected in this district $45,000, but a good part of it was in credits to other towns. For instance, in the Shattuck plant, this city only got a little over a thousand dollars out of over $8,000 collected, and there were credits to about two hundred different cities and towns.

PEACE CONFERENCE TO OPEN JAN. 3

Information Reached President Wilson
On George Washington--To Visit Italy and Battlefield First

(By Associated Press)
On board the George Washington, Dec. 10 (via wireless to the Associated Press).—President Wilson has learned by wireless from Colonel House that it is the plan of the French government to have the formal session of the Peace Conference start by the third of January. With this information, the President began laying his plans for his time until that date, so that he may be free to devote his time to the conference once it opens. He plans to at first visit the battlefield and the American troops and then a visit to Rome and to the Vatican.

As soon as possible he will have informal conferences with Premier Lloyd George, Premier Clemenceau and Premier Orlando of Italy, with the idea of having the points of difference ironed out before the conference.

MOSES' MAJORITY REDUCED

(By Associated Press)
Concord, N. H., Dec. 12.—The margin of victory of Senator George H. Moses over John B. Jameson in the November election for the successor to the late Senator Jacob H. Gallinger was not materially affected, by the recount which has just been completed here. The final figures cut down Senator Moses' lead 72 votes, giving him a majority of 293.

BRITISH HOLD RHINE BRIDGES

(By Associated Press)
Cologne, Dec. 8, Sunday.—The British troops here were in possession of all of the great bridges across the Rhine tonight, as a result of the sudden withdrawal of all German sentries from the west end of the bridges last night. The arrival of a Scotch regiment with their kilted made a general sensation among the German inhabitants.

NAVY TO BRING BACK SOLDIERS

(By Associated Press)
New York, Dec. 12.—With fourteen battleships and ten cruisers refitted to carry troops and with 44 transports available the Navy Department expects to play a prominent part in the return of the soldiers. The battleships will carry 1000 and the cruisers will take 1600. The regular troop ships will be used to take the sick and wounded.

157 HUN SUBS SUNK UP TO AUGUST

Washington, Dec. 12.—One hundred and fifty German and seven Austrian submarines were sunk in the war prior to August, Admiral Badger told the House Naval Committee today, quoting reports from Admiral Sims. He said the Germans had built 331 submarines and that the Austrian underwater fleet comprised only thirty-five craft, ten of which were obsolete. On Aug. 1 last Admiral Badger said the Germans had 113 submarines operating in the Atlantic and twenty-eight in the Mediterranean, while at the same time Austria had eighteen in the Mediterranean.

PRaised NAVAL PRISON HERE

Washington, Dec. 12.—The Navy lived up to its best traditions during the war and sailors almost invariably conducted themselves better than in peace times. Despite the large number of men inducted into service from civil life, which increased the naval force 331 per cent, there were fewer violations of Navy regulations. The percentage of court-martials decreased from 1.75 to 1.17 in the Navy and from 2.72 to 1.20 in the Marine Corps.

This fine record of the sailor's behavior was revealed today in the annual report of Captain George H. Clark, Judge advocate general, who also took occasion to commend the improved conditions in naval prisons, which he attributed largely to the efforts of the Welfare League. In referring to excellent conditions at the Portsmouth, N. H., yard, the judge advocate general said the system there was initiated by Thomas Mott Osborne, former superintendent of the New York State Prison.

Less promising results were noted of the probation system, only 65 per cent of the men so released completing the period of probation against 71 per cent in the preceding year.

NAVY HAS WON APPROVAL OF THE COUNTRY

Boston, Dec. 12.—Rear Admiral Wood received the following message today from Secretary of the Navy Daniels:

"The officers and men in the Navy during the past eighteen months have been so ready and so constant and efficient in every character of service that they are deserving of every consideration. It is hereby directed that either during Christmas or New Year's leave be granted to every person in the service who desires it wherever practicable. By dividing the granting of leave, some at Christmas and some at New Year's, it will be possible to afford this well earned reward to nearly all in the service. Please inform all the personnel of this message and extend them my greetings and appreciation of the great work they have accomplished which has won the approval of the whole country."

LAST OF U. S. PRISONERS OUT OF GERMANY

Geneva, Dec. 12.—The last contingent of American prisoners of war, 510, left here last night for Vichy where they will be rested before starting on their long journey home. The majority of the men are from Georgia and Indiana. All of the troops were greatly impressed with the cordial welcome given them by the people of Switzerland, who were especially good to the few straggler cases.

PLAN TO HAVE GREATEST NAVY

Washington, Dec. 12.—Neither the end of the hostilities or the proposed league of nations, has altered the general navy board's plan for the enlarged navy. Rear Admiral Badger today told the House naval committee that the navy should be built up so that it would be second to none by 1925.

BEAUTIFUL HAIR THICK, WAVY, FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Draw a moist cloth through hair and double its beauty at once.

Save your hair! Dandruff disappears and hair stops coming out.

Immediate?—Yes! Certain?—That's the joy of it. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after an application of Danderline. Also try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderline and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderline dissolves every particle of dandruff, cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

Danderline is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

You can surely have pretty, charming lustrous hair, and lots of it, if you will spend a few cents for a bottle of Knawton's Danderline from any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed.

76 DIVISION AT CAMP DEVENS TODAY

(By Associated Press)
Ayer, Mass., Dec. 12.—Word was received at Camp Devens today that a portion of the 76th division which was trained in Camp Devens and which has been in France for five months, would reach here on Friday morning from New York where 440 men and 27 officers arrived on the transport Kronland on Wednesday. Because of the early hour of their arrival the plans for a welcome have been given up.

In order to make room for the steady increase in the number of men being sent to this camp for examination and discharge, the demobilization machinery was speeded up today and 1181 men and 75 officers were sent back to civil life, and by the end of the week 1500 men are expected from Camp Devens for discharge here.

Officers of the United States Shipping Board were opened here today, to enlist the discharged soldiers in the merchant marine and in the shipyards. The officers here state that they have places for a million men.

WANTS N. E. TROOPS LANDED AT BOSTON

(By Associated Press)
Boston, Dec. 12.—Governor McCall today wired Secretary Baker asking that all troop ships having New England troops returning from France be sent to Boston for debarkation. He said that the people of New England and especially Boston would greatly appreciate this.

RAILROAD NOTES

A special fare route for conductors, similar to that used on the New York Harbor and Beach railroad has been issued by the Boston and Maine for the Dover branch.

The operating force of the Boston and Maine are receiving instructions on the rules governing employees, especially men in the train service. The instructions are given by John Knowlton, a former passenger trainman, who is traveling in a special car over the Portland Division for that purpose. The car is temporarily located at Dover. A special instructor is assigned to each division.

The debris of the freight wreck at Hampton Falls which occurred on Thursday morning will be picked up and removed by the Portsmouth wrecking crew on Sunday.

Local car inspectors of the Boston and Maine are now working on an 8-hour basis. The new working order affects 5 men.

The Boston and Maine round house and shop employ here who for many years received their weekly pay at the depot are now paid each Friday at the roundhouse by the traveling paymaster.

TURKEY CONSUMERS TO BE PROTECTED

Boston, Dec. 12.—City health inspectors are closely watching suspected poultry dealers this year to protect the consumers against being duped in their turkey purchases. Supt. of Markets J. J. McGourthy and Acting Deputy Health Commissioner George H. McCaffery have started a campaign of "prevent unscrupulous dealers from selling to the public as 'fresh killed' turkeys left over in the Thanksgiving trade and subsequently placed in cold storage."

"Thanksgiving turkeys are perfectly good today, if they're sold as cold storage stock and not as fresh killed," said Mr. McGourthy. "But the purchaser should get Thanksgiving turkeys at Christmas time for from 12 to 15 cents less than the price of those freshly-killed for the Christmas trade."

"Fresh birds are now selling at 55 cents, 10 cents less than was asked for them at Thanksgiving. The dealers were left with thousands of pounds of high priced turkeys at Thanksgiving, the public having gone on a turkey strike because of high prices of them."

"Some of these birds are bound to reappear; our job is to see that they are sold for what they are. All cold storage birds must bear tags, showing when they were stored. The purchaser cannot otherwise be protected from fraud than by watching the release of these birds from storage and by our insistence that they shall not be sold for a price anywhere near as high as that asked for fresh killed stock."

IF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER BOTHER

Take Salts to flush Kidneys and neutralize irritating acids.

Kidney and bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.

Sound Talk by Lloyd George.

There was sense and wisdom in what Premier Lloyd George said in addressing a mass meeting of women in London a few days ago. Beginning by pointing out that between 6,000,000 and 7,000,000 women in Great Britain will have a direct influence on the legislation of the future, which will largely depend on how they vote, he passed on to the Peace Conference and said: "If you suspect any man of going to the Peace Conference with war in his heart, vote against him. The coming peace must make war difficult, if not impossible. Those who made the war must pay the penalty. The higher they are, the more reason why they should be punished. The German people must also be made to pay the penalty. If it is an easy peace it will not be a just peace."

The most important part of this statement is that "the coming peace must make war difficult, if not impossible." That is one of the great aims and duties of the Peace Conference. It is to be hoped the fact will be kept in mind by all of the delegates and all of the powers whose influence will be felt in the negotiations. As Lloyd George says, Germany must be punished, but the punishment should be meted out in behalf of justice and not in the spirit of revenge.

To achieve this end and to make the world as secure as possible against future wars coolness and care will be necessary. Everybody wants peace now and it would be possible to patch up a peace that would not be enduring. Against anything of this sort all hands should stand rigidly on guard, and it is to be believed they can be trusted to do this.

Lloyd George is a firm believer in a league of nations. He does not say that such a league could prevent war in all cases, but it would add to the difficulties of making war. "Huge armies," he said, "which tempt rulers to war, must not be allowed to continue."

These words show the British Premier to be in close sympathy with the movement for a league of nations, which is under such strong headway in the United States, with ex-President Taft at its head, and there is little room for doubt that such a league will be formed; perhaps not at the Peace Conference, which will have so many other weighty matters to attend to, but in the near future. The world has had enough of war for the present and should fail to take no step that promises immunity from such horrors in the years to come.

The Peace Conference, like the war which it follows, will be the greatest of its kind in the history of the world. It is therefore to be hoped that no delegate will go to the table with "war in his heart," but that all will be ready for harmonious endeavor in the direction of a just settlement of the issues of the war just closed, and united effort to pave the way for a peace that shall be enduring and as wide as the world.

The Portland, Me., milk dealers have acceded to the request of the producers that the Federal Milk Commission be asked to fix the wholesale and retail prices. There was a time when such a course would have seemed like anything but "democracy," under which the people are supposed to attend to their own business affairs.

The New Hampshire Committee of Public Safety has decided not to disband at present, though this is being done by similar committees in other states. There is nothing like being on the safe side, although it looks now as if the bulk of the work of "Safety Committees" had been performed.

Vienna and Berlin have been instructed by the state department at Washington that any further communications they have to make should be addressed to all of the Allied nations and not especially to Washington. This is a polite and proper invitation to "address the chair."

The influenza is reappearing in many New England communities to an extent that is causing alarm. It will be a hard fate if this miserable disease must be battled with in addition to the other discomforts of winter.

In the literary world "Old King Cole" has appeared in a new role. With the unpleasant experiences of last winter fresh in mind the people of New England will hope that King Coal will follow suit.

A call for an appropriation of $26,000,000 to provide hospitals for discharged and disabled soldiers shows that we have not yet finished with the results of the war.

Wool held by the War Department is to be sold at public auction. Perhaps there will be a little something besides shoddy obtainable, after all.

"Germany plans for next war," says a headline. To a'm's!

NAVY YARD NOTES OUR BOYS SERVING UNDER STARS AND STRIPES

Want Firemen.

The Industrial Department made a call for three firemen today who are wanted at once for the yard power plant.

Shop Closed During Funeral

The sheet metal shop at the local yard was closed on Thursday afternoon as a mark of respect to the late Master Mechanic, Charles F. Drake. Nearly 100 men from that and other shops about the yard attended the last sad rites of the deceased at Elliot. Many of the officers of the Industrial Department were also present and a number of the civilian heads of the department.

Holiday Leave For All

Leave for virtually everyone connected with the Navy in this department at some time during the holiday season is recommended to Rear Admiral Wood, commanding First Naval District by Sec. Daniels, in a communication received on Thursday. The order is as follows:

"The officers and men in the Navy during the past 18 months have been so ready, constant and efficient in every character of service that they are deserving of every consideration. It is hereby directed that either during Christmas or New Year's leave be granted to every person in the service who desires it, wherever practicable."

"Please inform all the personnel of this message, and extend them my greetings and appreciation of the great work they have accomplished and which has won the approval of the country."

Wants Them Released

Capt. Powell and Lieut. Commander Jotham of the British cruiser Devonshire, lying at the Charlestown navy yard, but scheduled to sail on Sunday, Wednesday visited Police Headquarters in Boston, saw Police Commissioner O'Meara and Supt. Crowley and were guests for some time of Judge Murray in the Municipal court. Their aim was to secure the release of four of the Devonshire's crew who were sent by Judge Murray to Deer Island on sentences of 10 months each for complicity in an assault on patrolman Fisher.

Today Judge Murray will see the naval officers again.

Hardly Any Room Now.

Although Charlestown navy yard is crowded with ships several more have been ordered there for the holidays. Most of them are returning from the war zone where they have been doing convoy duty.

No Money for the Suits.

The paymaster general of the navy has decided that there is no appropriation for the Warm suits which the workmen have talked of wearing for outside work during the winter and none of the men will be seen with the new rig unless they are able to purchase it outside at their own expense.

Their Own Orchestras.

A company of yard workmen will provide the music for the navy yard show to be given in the Colonial Theatre Dec. 19-20. They are known as the Peersless Orchestra under Leader Gage and are credited with excellent work.

Dropping a Few More.

A discharge of about 125 employees will take place on Saturday, some 100 female operators are included in the list and the others will be from the pattern and boat shops.

Special Dining Room.

A special dining room for the use of the yard officers and clerks has been arranged by the management of the yard restaurant.

More Helpers.

Nine general helpers and one shipfitter were called today by the industrial Department.

PEN SKETCHES AND PICTURES.

Private Pay Eugene Hatt is another of the Portsmouth young men who has made the supreme sacrifice and for years to come Portsmouth folk will hand down from generation to generation to stories of the bravery and heroism of local boys in the great world and the sacrifices they made for freedom and democracy. The picture shows him in naval uniform, he having previously served on a collier. The news that Private Hatt had been killed in action in France in November, was received on Tuesday afternoon of this week in a telegram from the War Department at Washington, D. C., and received by his sister, Mrs. William Varney, 113 Bridge street with whom the young man made his home. Private Hatt became a member of the National Army in April and was sent to Camp Dix, N. J. in about two weeks he was sent overseas.

Private Hatt was the son of James A. Hatt of Livermore Falls. His mother died five years ago. He was born in Franconia this state 26 years ago and passed his boyhood there. He has made his home in Portsmouth since he was 16 years of age and for some time before he entered the service he was employed as a driver for the American Express. Although a young man of quiet tastes he had many friends and was held in high esteem by all and the news of his death was heard with much regret by his acquaintances. He died on the Field of Honor and his memory will long be revered.

Since going across his sister Mrs. Varney has written him many letters, but evidently he did not receive them. She received several letters from the young soldier and the last one to be received from him was on Sept. 29 and was in part as follows:

Sept. 29, 1918.

Dear Sister Eva:
Received your letter dated Aug. 5 yesterday and was glad to hear from you. I just came back from the front line. We went over the top. We were under shell fire at all times. We are out for rest for a few days before we go back again. I would like to go into detail more, but am not allowed to do so.

I suppose you know more about the peace question then we do over here by the papers, as we don't get any now. I am in hopes it is true so I could be with you by Christmas. It is certainly a terrible thing, this war, the most brutal thing that ever was. Have had the experience of my existence. We have seen awful sights but hope soon it will be over.

I suppose you think that you don't hear from me as often as you ought but our time is limited more than yours, and there are sometimes 3 or 4 weeks at a time that we don't have a chance to write. Write a letter, every week and the news, don't wait for me to write as I will every chance I get. It looks bad to see the rest of boys getting so much mail from home and I not any and if you wish you could number them as (1, 2, 3) so that it would let me know if I have lost one.

I am running into lots of rare German souvenirs now and which I would like to send you but do not have a chance, but am in hopes to do so soon. We are not allowed to send anything over 7 1/2 lbs. Souvenirs, for example, helmets, napkin rings, clocks, table center pieces, some of the villages and dug outs taken by Germans in the early part of the war which were taken by us now are certainly the picture of luxury. The dug outs are large with all modern improvements, with electric lights and baths. You see the Germans have maintained this part since early in the war. The chateaux are most elaborate, heavy tapestry, the best of furniture and everything.

We are now running in open warfare, no trenches, and very little cover. I suppose I don't have to tell you today is my birthday. I didn't realize until I asked what date it was. I feel fairly well under the situation I am in, but am going to pull through and see you soon.

Gram Pershing says "Heaven, Hell or Pottoboken by Christmas" I hope he is right. Well sister this will be all for this time so will close with love and kisses and best of luck from your loving brother,

FAY E. HATT.

P. S. Love to the kiddies and Bill and regards to all.

Private George Hatt, brother of Private Fay E. Hatt, has been at Camp

Devens for about 14 months, being a member of the 4th Company, 1st Battalion, Depot Brigade. He was driver for Wood Brothers for some years' giving up this position to go into the service.

PATRIOTIC LEAGUE BALL A SUCCESS

Successful in every detail was the ball given in the Armory Thursday evening by the Girls' Patriotic League and the many young people in attendance enjoyed very moment of the evening.

The elaborate decorations done by men of the S. S. St. Louis for the ship's ball of Tuesday evening were kept in place for the affair of Thursday evening and the gay adornings and dainty light evening gowns and army and navy uniforms of those present made the scene a brilliant affair. Music was furnished by Martin's orchestra of seven pieces and the selections were especially pleasing to the dancers. At intermission Caterer Andrew Jarvis served tea/cream and assorted cake.

FEDERAL GRAND JURY HEARD LOCAL CASES

The Portsmouth witnesses summoned before the United States grand jury at Concord, appeared before the jury on Thursday forenoon. Only a few of the large number, some twenty-five in all, went before the grand jury. The witnesses were in connection with the November election when several deputies from the United States

BASEBALL TO START MAY 1

(By Associated Press)
Chicago, Dec. 12.—Adoption of a 140-game schedule with the opening game on or about May first, is the plan of the American league to resume baseball in 1919. This was expressed after a long meeting of the club owners here today gathered for the annual meeting.

MAYOR AND COUNCIL CANVASS ELECTION VOTE

The Mayor and Council held their regular meeting on Thursday evening to canvass the votes cast at the last election, and they also disposed of some other business.

The meeting is one called by law and there was some delay in getting a quorum and it was 8.45 before the meeting was called to order when the usual resolution declaring the mayor-elect and councilmen at large elected on the returns of the vote canvassed was passed.

On motion of Councilman Kaula the resolution in regard to the Public Health zone, laid on the table at the last meeting, was taken from the table and on his motion accepted and adopted, although Councilman Humphreys rather demurred to the fact that the Public Health Service has taken over the work of the Board of Health.

The resolution is simply a request from the city government to the United States Public Health Service, that they continue the work here for which there is a large appropriation available until July, 1919. This includes $2,000 from the U. S. Public Health, $3,000 from the American Red Cross, $5,000 from the State of New Hampshire, and $2,000 from the State of Maine, $1,200 from York, and Portsmouth appropriated $3,000, which ceases Jan. 1. The Public Health Service is doing an excellent work and it is hoped that it will be continued, and that from it will come a proper local board of health.

The bond of H. E. Boynton as a member of the Sinking Fund Commission, was accepted and filed.

A resolution accepting the sewerage system at the Atlantic Heights as shown by accompanying plans and approved by the Board of Public Works was passed.

The auditor's reports of bills and salaries for December were accepted and ordered paid.

and in the next round he had him groggy, but he came back and as the bout progressed he appeared stronger and at no time did either seek to stall, but kept it going fast. Vatlin could outbox the New York boy, but Russell in fighting was far superior and he had more steam to his blows. The last two rounds were very fast and with the fans up on their feet and the decision for Russell was a popular one.

The semi-final was an eight-round bout between Charlie Tremblay of the Marine Corps and Jack Brennan of the Navy Yard. There was great interest in this bout on the part of the enlisted men and it was a good bout with both men perfectly willing to mix things hard and fast. They are both clean chaps and fight clean. Brennan was, however, too clever for the Marine and while Tremblay was game enough he could not get away from the long reach of Brennan, who is a good boxer and also has the necessary punch. Brennan got a well-earned decision.

The preliminary was between John Walsh and Young Doyle. Walsh knocked out Doyle in the first round.

OBITUARY

Charles F. Drake.

On the afternoon of Monday, Dec. 9, 1918, the many friends of Charles F. Drake, foreman plumber and cooper at the navy yard, were shocked to hear that he had died suddenly of apoplexy.

During the noon hour, he had, as was his custom, attended to matters of personal interest in Kittery, returning to the yard in time to indulge in good natured intercourse with his workmen while they were mustering for the duties of the afternoon.

Seldom, it is said, had he seemed more jovial or in better health. If he went to his office, where, seated at his desk, he had soon become absorbed in the details of job work of his department, when the end came painlessly and almost instantaneously.

The immediate administration of willing hands was unavailing and the word was passed that the respected and much loved foreman was dead.

Thus was he suddenly summoned from the duties of his chosen vocation in which he had given so much of his life and strength, while actively engaged therein.

Charles Fabian Drake, son of the late Fabian P. and Elizabeth Elkins Drake, was born in South Boston, Mass., Feb. 10, 1874.

At the age of ten years he removed with his parents to Kittery, Me., where he attended the public schools including a course of three years at the Kittery high school.

In 1890 when he was sixteen years of age he took employment at the navy yard as an apprentice plumber, and he has been continuously employed there in various capacities ever since having served as leading man, quartermaster and at the time of his death was foreman plumber and cooper.

Thus was real merit rewarded by a proper recognition of his mechanical and executive ability.

In 1895 he purchased a desirable residence in Elliot where he has since made his home.

An exemplary citizen, interested in school, church, social life, and whatever made for a better Elliot, he was highly esteemed and respected by his townsmen and associates.

His lodge affiliation was with John P. Hill Grange of which he was a charter member, a Past Worthy Master, and a member and clerk of the board of directors.

His unending devotion to the interests of this worthy organization makes his loss keenly felt.

He was Chairman of the Community Labor Board, and Chairman of the Committee of After Care in the Red Cross.

In 1896 he was married to Esther P. Clancy of Wilton, Me., who with one son, Fabian Rescoe, an electrician in the U. S. Navy, survives him. He also leaves one brother Everett W. Drake of Worcester, Mass., and other more distant relatives.

From his office where his ability was recognized and appreciated by his superiors; from the shop where his far-reaching and square dealing won him the confidence and regard of his men; from the town where he was regarded as a model citizen; from the social circle where his courtesy, coupled with a fine sense of humor made him popular; from his home where his kindly nature and devotion of every kind, found its fullest expression; Charles Fabian Drake, a man much beloved and respected, has answered his last call.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Sage Tea and Sulphur Turns Gray, Faded Hair Dark and Glossy.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, bring back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays by asking at any drug store for Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound you get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

PREFERS PRIVATELY OWNED RAILROADS

Vermont Grange Also Against Eight-Hour Day.

Burlington, Vt., Dec. 13.—The Vermont State Grange in closing its 47th annual convention here Thursday adopted resolutions opposing the eight hour law and urging the return of railroads to private ownership. Incorporated in the resolution relative to hours of labor was the statement that the farmer realizes that his interests and that of organized labor are opposite.

Government control of railroads was opposed on the ground that 12 months Federal control had been "disappointing and unsatisfactory." Return of roads to the original owners at the earliest practical time and with strict Government regulations was urged.

Resolutions were also adopted favoring a law to dispose of the roving dogs so as to protect sheep; favoring reclamation of swamp and waste lands for the returning soldiers; endorsing the Federal Reserve banking system; urging state aid for County Agricultural Agent, and advocating return to the single mailing system of magazines and periodicals.

The secretary's report showed that the State Grange has 14,000 members. No selection of a place for the 1919 convention was made.

HOW THE Y. M. C. A. MEN FACED DEATH

Recognition of the self-sacrifice and willingness to face death on the part of men who put aside their businesses to serve in the war zone, under the necessary, as Y. M. C. A. workers are being given by the Red Triangle organization in the form of certificates of honorable discharge to those volunteers who were not sent overseas. In a statement announcing this, the personnel division of the National War Work Council Y. M. C. A. sets forth the particular need of specialists, developed by the War Department's Expeditionary Forces. The statement follows:

"The Young Men's Christian Association as one of the larger organizations that have been serving our military forces overseas finds itself confronted, following cessation of hostilities, with the necessity for a radical revision of its program. The character of much of the work required under present conditions is quite different from that called for while men were entering, leaving or in the trenches.

"Immediately following the armistice it was thought that a largely increased force would be needed, and it was made for more men. Later, when the return of the army from Great Britain was put into effect immediately, and the early demobilization of the American forces in France was begun, it was found that entire classes of men heretofore needed in considerable numbers by the Y. M. C. A. would not be required.

"The Y. M. C. A. now has over 5,000 workers in France alone. Hereafter the requirements will be limited to certain specialists and experienced leaders. This change of program will assist very importantly in conserving the gifts of the nation. Educational work will be largely increased for the armies of occupation, and to an even greater extent than before an all around Red Triangle program will be maintained. This will limit recruiting to specialists.

"Many men, some of whom already had reached New York on their way overseas, have had to be returned to their homes because the particular

Open sluices of the system each morning and wash away the poisonous, stagnant matter.

Those of us who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when we arise; splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, lumpy back, can, instead both look and feel as fresh as a daisy always by washing the poisons and toxins from the body with phosphated hot water each morning.

We should drink, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to flush from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleans, sweetens and purifying the entire alimentary tract before putting more food into the stomach.

The action of limestone phosphate and hot water on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will cost very little at the drug store, but is sufficient to make anyone who is bothered with biliousness, constipation, stomach trouble or rheumatism a real enthusiast on the subject of internal sanitation. Try it and you are assured that you will look better and feel better in every way shortly.

form of work for which they were chosen will not now be needed. They will add to the number of men in every community disappointed because they did not get overseas but entitled to equal honor with those whose usefulness and patriotic desire has not been thwarted. All will receive certificates of honorable discharge in recognition of their patriotism."

SEEKING A SITE FOR NEW HOTEL

Boston Parties Looking for Property on Vaughan Street.

For several days parties representing Boston business men have been in this city looking over property which can be purchased from local owners.

It is understood that the parties interested are seeking a location for a modern hotel.

The men gave considerable time to inspection of property on Vaughan street and also met several real estate dealers while here. The Stoddard property next to the Olympia Theatre was most favored by the men behind the project and they have been given a price by the owners. Other buildings and land on the same street may be purchased if the Boston parties care to pay the price named.

QUIET HOME WEDDING

Marshall-Walker Nuptials at Home of Bride on Thursday Evening.

The marriage of Miss Florence Goodwin Marshall, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Marshall, and Orin Jackson Walker, U. S. M. C., of Clarksburg, West Va., took place Thursday evening at 7.30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents on Miller avenue and was a quiet affair.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Alfred Gooding, pastor of the Unitarian church, and included an exchange of rings.

The couple left later on a short wedding trip and at its conclusion will take up their residence at 303 Miller avenue.

The bride is an accomplished musician and has many friends. The groom is a popular member of the marine guard at the navy yard.

WILL OPEN STATION FOR THE WORKMEN

The appeal of workmen to the Boston and Maine for the opening of the station at Raymond in the morning has been granted. The men who are employed at the navy yard and shipyards complained of being obliged to wait for the train in the cold which resulted in the waiting rooms being opened for their benefit. The men had little to say until the train which brings them to this city began to run late, then they considered themselves justified in demanding something better.

RECOUNT OF VOTES FOR WARD FIVE

Wan (Another Look at Ballots in the Dunn-Higgins Contest of Dec. 10.

The Democratic City committee, through Samuel W. Emery, has petitioned for a recount of ballots cast on Dec. 10 for ward councilman in Ward 5.

On the face of the returns Dr. M. A. Higgins, the democratic candidate, was defeated by three votes by his republican opponent, William H. Dunn. The figures on election day gave Dunn 116 and Higgins 113. City Clerk Soule will set the date for the recount as soon as the petition reaches city hall.
